

I'm The O.N.E. in Lonely

©Calvo/Heffker

VERSE: There's a half-drunk cup of coffee
 Your lipstick on the rim
There's still a dip in your side of the bed
 There's a hint of your perfume
 Still haunting every room
 Funny, it's like you never left...

CHORUS: I'm The O.N.E. In Lonely
 I'm The one doing solitary time
 I don't answer the door
 Pick up the phone
I just sit in the dark, like nobody's home
 It's just me and your memory
 I'm the O.N.E. In Lonely

VERSE: I've lost 7 pounds
 Without even trying
 It's only 10.00am
 And there's Bourbon on my breath
I'm talking to myself, not making any sense
 Me and the house are both a mess...

CHORUS:

BRIDGE: Don't you think it's time
 To put our differences aside
And try to save the love we stand to lose
 Say we might could
 Baby, someday soon
 Talk about giving 'Us' one more try
